Saddle Pals Wine Club

The Fine Print

As a Saddlehorn Winery Saddle Pals Wine Club Member, you agree that the Club will bill your credit card for each shipment (plus sales tax if shipped in Texas). Your credit card will also be charged for shipping and handling. All charges will be processed one week PRIOR to shipment and Will Call announcement. Wine Club shipments will be about $75 each. An email will be sent prior to shipment to notify you of the pending shipment and amount charged.

You may cancel your membership in writing (email or post) at any time. Members are required to pay for any shipments that have been completed. All Wine Club members who have selected Will Call as their delivery option MUST pick up their wine within 30 days of Will Call announcement or shipment will be sent to your billing address with cost billed to your credit card.

A daytime shipping address with someone 21 or older who can sign for delivery is required. Please notify Saddlehorn Winery of any address changes before wine is billed, as we cannot be responsible for misdirected wines. There will be 3 attempts to deliver. Saddlehorn Winery is not responsible for additional shipping charges.

Ship to a business if possible. Shipments to a business address are delivered faster and safer than to a home address. Ground shippers will not deliver to a PO Box.

We are committed to protecting your privacy. Your personal information will never be sold or shared with anyone. The Wine Club membership is void where prohibited. We reserve the right to change or amend terms as required.
